THE INAUGURAL GILDER LECTURE

23 October 2018

General. As part of the year's social programme the Master would like to invite you to the Masons' Company inaugural Gilder Lecture. Named after Mr James Gilder, Master Mason from 1620-1621, the event, which promises to be enlightening, entertaining and sociable, will be held in the Court Room of St Andrew's Holborn, on Tuesday 23 October 2018. Doors will open at 6.00pm, the lecture will commence at 6.30pm and will be followed by drinks and nibbles.

The Lecture. Entitled 'Stone & City', a presentation will this year be given by Mr Adrian Paye of PAYE Stonework and Restoration. A Liveryman of the Company, Adrian has recently been heavily involved in the reconstruction of the Roman Temple of Mithras beneath the new Bloomberg building, in addition to being a skills assessor for the Queen Elizabeth Scholarship Trust and an Ambassador for the Museum of London.
